FRESH CHOICE FOOD CO-OP

The Fresh Choice Food Co-op is a partnership of Maranoa Heights Community House and Geeveston Community Centre. These two organisations operate as Not for Profit Organisations and are members of the community house network of 34 houses in Tasmania.

The Fresh Choice Food Co-op is proudly supported by our peak body, Neighbourhood Houses Tasmania along with its partners in the Towards Sustainable Food Co-ops Project, Eat Well Tasmania and the Heart Foundation. This project received funding from the State Government to enable some Community Houses to partner with their community for the development of projects to increase local access to healthy food.

The Fresh Choice Food Co-op is one of these projects and aims to support fair, diverse and accessible food systems for the benefit of our local

SUPPORT FOR LOCAL PRODUCERS

THE CO-OP WILL STRIVE TO SUPPORT LOCAL PRODUCERS AND SMALL SCALE FARMERS.

AS WELL AS SOURCING PRODUCE FROM COMMUNITY GARDENS AND LOCAL SCHOOL KITCHEN GARDENS.

THE MORE MEMBERS WE GET THE BETTER BUYING POWER THE CO-OP WILL HAVE TO PROVIDE DIRECT CONNECTIONS BETWEEN PRODUCERS AND THE COMMUNITY.

WE WILL ALSO SUPPORT LOCAL BUSINESS WITH A FRIENDS OF THE CO-OP SCHEME. LOCAL BUSINESS CAN DONATE ITEMS OR MONEY TO THE CO-OP. IN RETURN THEY WILL BE PROMOTED
