Thank You.

ONYAS

Learning:

Oscar C by showing perseverance with automatic response and improving his scores and times.

Fletch P by doing a great job learning our addition and subtraction strategies and not giving up if they were tricky.

Selina S by doing a great job to improve her reading.

Sienna G by improving her organisation skills and doing a great job of tidying up her things.

Ziggy J by working hard to improve his daily mental maths skills and moving to a more challenging level.

Braidyn B by showing great interest during recent Maths lessons and shape and working hard to create some models of 3D shapes.

Abi W by always trying her best to improve her skills and understanding across all curriculum areas.

Curtis C-W by commencing a writing task and seeing it through to completion. Curtis then took the initiative to find the editing code to further improve his writing.

Curtis C-W by being particularly attentive during a maths task and making a connection between the learning intention and the task, and communicated his thinking using academic language.

Zoe P by helping out an early childhood class by filming their assembly item and therefore giving up her afternoon.

Respect:

Elsa P for taking initiative at pack up time to empty the worm bucket near our classroom, and as many classrooms around the school as she can manage in the time she has available. Thank you for going above and beyond in respecting our school environment.

Ashley H for taking initiative at pack up time to empty the worm bucket near our classroom, and as many classrooms around the school as she can manage in the time she has available. Thank you for going above and beyond in respecting our school environment.

Henry M for treating others with respect and encouraging his peers to listen respectfully during morning circle.

Zac C for respecting our classroom environment by always helping to clean up in the afternoon. He often takes initiative to tidy areas without being asked.

Everyone that attended the DEC to see Morris Gleitzman by being one of the most respectful schools in attendance at this event. All staff that went were most impressed.

Care and Understanding:

Finlay W by caring for a younger student when he bumped his head while playing soccer. Thank you for looking out for our younger school members Fin.

CARE PACKS FOR THE HOMELESS

Over the last 5 years there has been an increase in homelessness by over 13% with over 116,000 people being registered as homeless in Australia.

Our family would like to help those in need in Southern Tasmania by making up care packs to distribute to charities around Hobart and surrounding suburbs. We are seeking your help by asking for donations of specific items.

Drop off Points include:

- ✓ Illawarra Primary School,
- ✓ The Coffee Break at Eastlands,
- ✓ The Royal Hobart Hospital Emergency Department
- ✓ or by contacting Jacinta Stewart on 0404938272

Donations

We would greatly appreciate any contributions of the following items:

- Gloves
- Toothpaste
- Toothbrushes
- Wet Wipes
- Socks
- Lip balm
- Band-aids
- Tissues
- Deodorant
- Shampoo
- Sanitary products

We will be collecting items until

Monday 15th July
